“Dec. 21. The date looms large in the Syracuse University community- and all over the world. On that day in 1988, a terrorist bomb caused the explosion of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, resulting in the loss of 270 lives. Thirty-five SU students were on the flight, traveling back to the United States after a semester abroad. Tragically, none made it home alive. But when the first group of Remembrance Scholars at SU

*was named in April 1990, the victims' legacies were secured.
Every year since, 35 SU students have been chosen as Remembrance Scholars, an award that bears with it a responsibility to remember and honor the lost students”
- Wendy S. Loughlin, 12 Oct 1998*

Remembrance Week 2000 consisted of a weeklong series of events honoring the lives of 35 Syracuse University students who lost their lives in the Pan Am Flight 103 terrorist attack over Lockerbie, Scotland, on December 21, 1988. Each year, 35 Remembrance Scholarships, each in the amount of $5,000, are awarded to undergraduate students because of distinguished academic achievement, citizenship, and service to community. The 2000-2001 Remembrance Scholars hosted all events.
