Set in Stone: Constructing the Arlington Memorial Cairn

Noble Room, Hendricks Chapel

This exhibit presents the history of the Arlington Cemetery Memorial Cairn, built “In Remembrance of the Two Hundred and Seventy People Killed in the Terrorist Bombing of Pan American Airways Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland”, and dedicated November 3, 1995. From the lobbying efforts that made it possible, to the designs that made it visible, follow the story of the Cairn as shown by the Pan Am Flight 103/Lockerbie Air Disaster Archives at Syracuse University.

April 2012 – TBA

The “I Remember” 5K Walk and Race will be held on SU’s main campus.

Remembrance Week consists of a weeklong series of events honoring the lives of 35 Syracuse University students who lost their lives in the Pan Am Flight 103 terrorist attack over Lockerbie, Scotland, on December 21, 1988. Each year, 35 Remembrance Scholarships, each in the amount of $5,000, are awarded to undergraduate students for distinguished academic achievement, citizenship, and service to community. The 2011-2012 Remembrance Scholars will host all events.
